Memory Verse

"Be happy with me . . . I found my . . . sheep!" (Luke 15:6, ICB).

Objectives:

The children will

Know that Jesus loves them as the shepherd loved his sheep.

Feel safe because Jesus cares for them.

Respond by saying thank You to Jesus.

The Message

Jesus cares for you and me.

Getting Ready to Teach

The Bible Lesson at a Glance

A shepherd has many sheep. But one day he discovers he has lost one. He searches everywhere until he finds it. He is so happy to take the sheep home to be with all the others!

This is a lesson about grace.

God's gift of grace includes watching over us wherever we go and whatever we do. Young children can understand and feel God's love through the love of their parents as the parents watch over them in every way.

Teacher Enrichment

"Of all creatures the sheep is one of the most timid and helpless, and in the East the shepherd's care for his flock is untiring and incessant. . . .

"As an earthly shepherd knows his sheep, so does the divine Shepherd know His flock that are scattered throughout the world. . . . Jesus knows us individually, and is touched with the feeling of our infirmities. He knows us all by name. He knows the very house in which we live, the name of each occupant. . . .

TWO

"However much a shepherd may love his sheep, he loves his sons and daughters more. Jesus is not only our shepherd; He is our 'everlasting Father'" (The Desire of Ages, pp. 478-483).

How are you showing the love of the Shepherd to your family and students?

Room Organization

Have children sit in a semicircle with parents sitting at their side.

Room Decorations

Decorate your room with an outdoor scene. If possible, create "mountains" that can be climbed (can be rocks or wood or wooden boxes), a stream (paper or fabric), something to represent grass (green paper or fabric, imitation grass). Make a cave for the sheepfold with a sheet or build it with boxes, chairs, bamboo, or something easily available where you live.

PARENT TIME

Busy parents often arrive at church tired and worn out from the week's activities and from getting the family ready for the "day of rest." Share a word of encouragement with them sometime during Sabbath School (possibly during Arrival Activities), something that will express your care and concern for them. The following statements were prepared by young mothers and fathers as suggestions, and may be used at your discretion at any time you wish.

Week 1

I used to be a decent, respectable human being. I knew how to organize things, accomplish things, finish a project. Then my son was born. Suddenly everything in my life seemed total chaos! My house was a mess, my body was a mess, my life was one big mess. How could it be that at this wonderful time in my life I felt so awful? I began to attend a mother's group that became my lifeline. It met only twice a month, but that was twice a month that I knew I wasn't alone! God used other people who were going through the same things to lift me up and help me remember that He knew me. God knows YOU! He feels every emotion you experience. He says to you, "I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you" (see John 14:18).

What are some things we can do to strengthen and encourage one another?

Week 2

Amy smiled. I've actually accomplished something this morning! she thought. The floor was mopped, and 22 cups of granola cereal cooled in a bowl on the counter. Going into the bedroom, she shut the door behind her. While the boys napped she could make a couple of phone calls and fold some laundry.

Unknown to Amy, her 2-year-old was NOT asleep. He went to the kitchen, pulled a chair over to the counter, and proceeded to dump all 22 cups of fresh granola onto the floor. Then he added a big box of dry cereal. He continued the adventure by emptying the full garbage can on the mess. About that time Amy came into the kitchen. . .

Ever had that kind of day? Jesus understands. He calls you to Him. He knows your frustration. And He will pick up the pieces.

Share a time your child undid all the work you had done and the frustrations you felt. In those moments, what can help YOU remember God's love and care for you?

Week 3

One afternoon we took a walk. For some reason, our almost 3-year-old had decided that a walk was NOT what he wanted to do. He asked, "Daddy, will you carry me?" I answered him teasingly, "Oh, son, you're too big for me to carry!" Crossing his little arms firmly across his chest, he answered with determination, "Well, I am NOT too heavy for JESUS!"

Share a time the burdens of parenthood seemed heavy. Turn to someone near you and remind them, "NOTHING is too heavy for JESUS!"

Week 4

Here's a precious thought of encouragement today! Put YOUR name in each of the blanks: "Jesus knows the burden of _____'s heart. He is _____'s best friend in every emergency. His everlasting arms support _____" (Ellen White, Bible Echo, Sept. 1, 1893). (Read this through more than once, to give everyone the opportunity to let the thought really sink into their hearts.)

Week 5

My friend, a nurse, was used to working the night shift. After her baby's birth she expressed her feelings of exhaustion and amazement at what a lot of time it took to care for a newborn. "I'm doing OK with the baby being up a lot at night, but I keep wondering when the day shift is coming in!" Remember in times like these that Jesus knows your feelings.

Share a time you felt exhausted and needed a break.

ARRIVAL ACTIVITIES

Plan simple play activities on a blanket, sheet, or quilt for children who arrive early. The children participate in these activities, under the supervision of an adult, until the program begins. The child's play should be with materials that relate to the program, which is based on the monthly Bible story.

Choose from the following suggested activities for this month. Be sure to include something for the span of children's ages.

A. Animals

Provide toy stuffed animals (some that make noises) for the children to hold. If possible, provide adult and baby animals for the children to match. Build a cave for the animals with blocks or with a sheet and two chairs. Let the children put the animals in their "house." Provide green paper for the older children to shred or crunch and then feed to the animals.

B. Peekaboo Box

Place a piece of fabric or a hand towel and play objects such as blocks, rattles, balls, stuffed animals, etc., into a box. Parents can hide an object under the fabric and let children play peekaboo to find something hidden, as the parent says this rhyme:

Peekaboo

Let's see who

Finds a (name of the object)

that got lost (child picks up the object).

(Name) did! (Hug the child. Affirm the child.)

C. Nesting Toys

Hide a small object (could be a small toy sheep) inside or under a nesting toys set. (Nesting dolls, different size boxes, or plastic containers all work well.) Children will open the nesting toys until they find the lost sheep or other object.

D. Pets

Bring in a small pet (turtle, bird, fish, hamster, kitten, or puppy) that children can look at, touch, and feed. Ask them to name the animal, make the sound the animal makes, and tell what it eats.

E. Hide-and-Seek

Hide objects or toy animals inside a box, under a chair, or in other places in the room. Ask the children to find them. When they find the animal, say: How happy we are that we found the lost (name of the animal or object). Option: Have children hide under a table. Have the other children or parents look for them.

F. Rock-a-bye Baby

Provide a child-size rocking chair and dolls and blankets for the children to hold and rock while singing or listening to music.

G. Rocking Chair

Provide an adult-size rocking chair for parents to hold and rock children who are too tired or shy to join in the activities.

A. Memory Verse

You Need:

Clap each time you sing the words "found my sheep" to the tune of "I'm So Small" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 96).

B. Naming and Counting the Sheep

Directions for sheep mask:

You Need:

- ☐ for each child, toy stuffed or plastic sheep or sheep mask
- ☐ adult to play the shepherd
- ☐ Bible-times costume for shepherd
- ☐ walking stick
- ☐ white paper plates
- ☐ pink and black construction paper
- ☐ a copy of the ear and nose pattern (see p. 73)
- ☐ cotton balls
- ☐ black construction paper
- ☐ scissors
- ☐ glue sticks
- ☐ elastic thread or rubber band
- ☐ stapler

To make a mask for each child, have the parent begin with a white paper plate. Cut out holes for eyes. Cut the ears out of pink paper and the nose out of black paper (see patterns on page 73). Glue the nose and ears to paper plate. Add cotton balls. Staple the elastic band to each side just above the ears.

Dress as the shepherd and tell the story, or ask another adult to be the shepherd while you narrate. The children will either hold and use the toy sheep during the entire program or wear their sheep masks and pretend to be sheep. Before you begin the story, ask one adult and a child to be the lost sheep and to hide at the appropriate point in the story.

Say: Once there was a shepherd who had many sheep.

Invite the children to bring their toy sheep or wear their sheep masks and come sit on the floor near the shepherd. The shepherd loved each of his sheep. He knew each of their names. There's Hannah, and Brian, and Rachel, and Daniel. (Use the names of each of the children in your class.) The shepherd knew what was special about each sheep. (Name characteristics about the children in your class, such as the oldest, youngest, biggest, littlest, hair color, etc. Be sensitive to differences that might be embarrassing.) Each one of the shepherd's sheep was special, and the shepherd loved each one. He loved the big grown-up sheep, and he loved the little baby lambs. Every morning the shepherd counted to make sure all of his sheep and lambs were there. One, two, three . . . (Count the children. Invite them to count with you.) Yes, they were all there. The shepherd was very happy.

Pat, hug, or in some other way express affection for each of the children as you sing "The Shepherd Loves His Lambs" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 114).

The Shepherd loves His lambs, and Jesus loves me.

C. Sheep Fleece

You Need:

Give each child an opportunity to touch the fleece while you sing "Woolly, Woolly Lamb" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 171).

Woolly, woolly lamb,
Woolly, woolly lamb,
Jesus made you soft and woolly;
Woolly, woolly lamb,
Woolly, woolly lamb,
Jesus made you soft and woolly.

Jesus made the grass for the hungry sheep;
Let's feed the sheep, let's feed the sheep;
Jesus made the grass for the hungry sheep;
Let's feed the hungry sheep.

Say: The shepherd built a sheepfold for his sheep. He wanted them to have a place where they would be safe from wild animals and bad storms. Let the children help you build the sheepfold; then crawl inside. Sing "The Good Shepherd" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 123) while you build the cave or while sitting inside the cave with the children.

The good shepherd watches,

He keeps them from danger and gives them all they need.

You Need:

- ☐ parent and child

H. Nighttime

Turn out the light.
Say: When it started getting dark, the shepherd took all of his sheep back to their sheepfold. Do you remember why? Yes, so they would be safe from storms and wild animals. The shepherd wanted his sheep to be safe because he loved them. Let's take our sheep home.

Signal for the parent and child to hide instead of coming to the fold. Lead the rest of the children to the sheepfold. Say: Are all the sheep and lambs here? The shepherd wanted to be sure they were all safe for the night. So he counted his sheep:

one, two, three . . . (Invite the children to count with you. Call the children by name and remember some of the characteristics you mentioned earlier in the program.) But wait! Something is wrong! Earlier we had (name the number) of sheep and now we have (one less). Someone is missing! Who is it? See if the children can help you identify who is missing.

I. Sheep Search

Say: What do you think the shepherd did when he found out one sheep was missing? Did he go inside his house and have supper? No. Did he crawl into his warm bed? No. The shepherd could never rest as long as one of his precious sheep was missing. Maybe his sheep was hurt. Maybe it was in danger. The shepherd couldn't leave his sheep out by itself. The shepherd went searching for his lost sheep.

Pretend to search and search for the hiding child. Call out for the sheep during the search. When you find the "lost" parent and child say: Oh, I've found my lost sheep! I'm so happy! I was so worried about my lost sheep, but now I have found him/her.

Sing "Rejoice, I Have Found My Sheep" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 176).

Rejoice, I have found my sheep.
Rejoice, I have found my sheep.
I have found my sheep,
Rejoice, Rejoice, Rejoice,
I have found my sheep.

That is found in Luke 15, verse 6.

You Need:

- ☐ round crackers
- ☐ peanut butter or other spread
- ☐ flaked coconut
- ☐ pretzel sticks
- ☐ raisins
- ☐ sealable plastic bags (optional)

Closing

Say: Jesus loves us and cares for us just as a shepherd cares for his sheep. Jesus even calls Himself our Shepherd. Close with a short prayer similar to the following: Dear Jesus, thank You for loving us and caring for us just as a shepherd cares for his sheep. We love You, Jesus. Amen.

As the children prepare to leave the room, sing "Good-bye Prayer" (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 44).

It is time to say good-bye now,
But first a prayer we pray,
"Dear Jesus, keep and bring us back Again next Sabbath day."

Memory Verse

"Be happy with me . . . I found my . . . sheep!"
 (Luke 15:6, ICB).

The Message

Jesus cares for you and me.

Baa! says the woolly lamb. Woolly Lamb wants his mother. Baa-baa! Don't worry, little lamb. The shepherd will help you.

Wake up, shepherd! It's time to get up. (Point to the shepherd, then the sheep.) Wake up, sheep! It's time to nibble the thick, green grass.

Wake up, Woolly Lamb! (Point to the black lamb.) It's time for breakfast. Baa-baa!

Don't move, fluffy sheep. Don't move, Woolly Lamb. It's time for the shepherd to count the sheep.

(Touch child's nose for each count.) 1-2-3-4-5. The shepherd is counting the sheep. 21-22-23-24.

Are all the sheep safe?
 97-98-99-100! Yea!
(Clap hands.)

All the sheep are counted. All the sheep are safe.

The sun is high in the sky. The sun feels hot. The sheep feel thirsty. Woolly Lamb stays close to mother sheep. Sniff-sniff! (Pretend to sniff.) The sheep smell water.

Let's run to the water. (Run to the sink; drink water.)

Walking, walking. The sheep are tired of walking. "Let's stay here for a while," the shepherd says. But big, ugly flies buzz about the sheep. (Point to the flies.) Buzz-buzz! (Tickle your child.)

Flies buzz Woolly Lamb's eyes. Flies buzz Woolly Lamb's nose. Woolly Lamb stamps his feet. (Stamp feet.) All the sheep stamp at the flies.

Don't move, fluffy sheep, don't move! The shepherd gives medicine to each sheep. (Touch child's face.) The shepherd gives medicine and counts (touch child's nose and count) 97-98-99.

Uh-oh! Woolly Lamb is not here. Where is Woolly Lamb?

"Woolly Lamb, where are you?"
(Child hides face with tissue.)

Is Woolly Lamb in the pool? (Point.) No, he is not there. (Shake head.) Is he near the rocks? (Point.) No, not there.

Where is Woolly Lamb? Shh! Listen.
(Your child says, "Baa!")

Oh, there you are! (Remove tissue; hug child.)

Baa-baa! Woolly Lamb is safe.

Thank you, shepherd, for finding him.

Thank you, shepherd, for bringing him back.

Thank You, Jesus, for loving our own little lamb. (Hug child. Spin with child around the room.)

1. You and your child play making different animal sounds. Thank God for animals.

2. Make up a little song about the shepherd and the sheep or, with your child, sing one that you learned in Sabbath School.

3. Look for things with different textures. With your child, touch them and talk about how different things feel. Look for a texture that feels like sheep's wool.

4. Play hide-and-seek with your child. Hug him/her when you find him/her. Then sing the memory verse song.

5. Put in a drawer or in a box things related to the lesson (cotton or toy sheep, some food, water in a plastic bottle). Use them to tell the Bible story to your child.

6. Put some food for birds on a bird feeder, or let your child help you feed some animals at the park.

7. Tell the lost sheep story while playing "Follow the Leader." Crawl under the table, climb "mountains" (pillows), and so on.

8. Make a trail with paper streamers. Have your child find his/her way to the "lost sheep" by following the streamers. Sing "The Good Shepherd" (learned in Sabbath School).

9. With your child, make an edible sheepfold and sheep. Make the sheepfold with bread, cookies, or fruit pieces. Make sheep out of banana pieces or some other fruit covered with coconut.

10. Sing a song or make one up about mother sheep and other animals taking care of their babies.

11. Along with your child, using blocks, build a sheepfold.

12. Hide a toy stuffed animal. You and your child can look for it and sing the memory verse song when you find it.

13. Show your child how to model some sheep with play dough or make cookies with the shape of sheep or a shepherd's staff.

14. Have your child say thank You to Jesus for giving them a mommy and/or daddy to take care of them.

15. Play a call-and-respond game. Parent calls: "Little lamb, little lamb, where are you?" Child answers with animal sound. (Repeat with other animals.)
